What is new in this release: Version 5.4.1.0 may include unspecified updates, enhancements, or bug fixes. All three Toronto teams are quickly approaching the end of their seasons. The Toronto Raptors still have a glimmer of hope for a playoff spot if they can win their last six games. As for the Toronto Maple Leafs, they are currently sitting in the basement of the Eastern Conference. The Toronto Blue Jays, on the other hand, are locked in a tight battle for the American League East with the New York Yankees. It's a busy time for the Toronto sports scene, but luckily we were able to catch up with a few of the city's major sports stars and ask them how they're feeling about things at the moment. We asked them about the results of this year's playoffs, whether this will be their last season in Toronto and how they're coping with the end of the season. Let's jump right in. Raptors: Kawhi Leonard Raptors guard Kyle Lowry was the first to take part in our chat and he says he's very excited about how the season ended and about how the playoffs are unfolding. "It's really fun, you know, everything about it's been fun," Lowry said. "Our team that we have, that we have, it's fun. Just being a part of it, it's fun. The playoffs have been great. We were able to get to the Eastern Conference finals and see some great teams." He says if the Raptors were to win the championship it would be a huge accomplishment. "If we do win it, I mean, I would have been sitting here and talking about it five years ago," Lowry said. "It would be a great feeling. I wouldn't get a chance to do it. If
