The 2015 World Championships were postponed due to a huge storm in Edinburgh. The 2013 World Championships were postponed due to the strike at the Edinburgh International Festival. The World Championships have been held in Edinburgh every year since 1998. In 1989 the event was held in Adelaide because of ice on the Forth Road Bridge. The 2017 World Championships were originally due to be held in mid-June in Edinburgh. It was hoped that many of the events would be able to use the East Lothian racing track which is set in one of the oldest horse racing courses in the world. The city council secured a flood warning but the event was pushed back to October 2017. Day 1: If you are coming to race at the Aintree Grand National you need to arrive by the end of the evening race because the train station is not set up to handle the huge numbers of people and there will not be anywhere to find shelter. If you are coming on the train from Glasgow for the meeting at Aintree, expect delays of up to two hours on the sleeper trains. The A8 on the M8 corridor is much more open than usual for this time of year. Use the A8 to Glasgow Parkhead if possible. If you are coming from Aberdeen you can get the train to King's Cross station and connect to the sleeper to Aintree. Festive Lanes Rain is forecast on the day of the meeting so the course is likely to be wet. The Aintree Racecourse car parks are being closed on the day of the meeting so it is best to find accommodation elsewhere. Racegoers coming from all over the UK should plan to drive at night. More
